

Hans Annevall

*M.Sc. Engineering
More than 40 years of adequate experience*

Project Manger with wide experience in Managing Building-, Infrastructure- and Gas Transmission Projects. Hans has been running complex projects on behalf of the Swedish Rail Administration, Fortum, E.ON and Clara Foundation. With his base in Stockholm, Mr Annevall has also carried out assignments in Finland, Libya, Tanzania, Brasil and Malaysia.

PeO Apel

More than 35 years of adequate experience

Long career as journalist within Swedish TV and radio. Since the early 90:s active as freelancer in journalism, PR and communications. After that Director of Communications at Swedish Rail Administration. Since 2007 managing his own company M13 Kommunikation AB / Communication On Demand.

Bo Berggren

*PhD Civil Engineering
More than 30 years adequate experience*

Principal Geologist and Material Engineer. Special field: Risk Management at major projects related to the geological issues. Main engagements; road, railway, harbour, airports. Has been working in a wide range of countries all over the world.

Ingemar Bjurel

*M.Sc. Engineering
More than 30 years of adequate experience*

Project Manager and Principal Highway Engineer for nationally and internationally funded projects. Main engagements; road safety, feasibility studies, roads supervision, institutional development and capacity building. Working experience from Asia and the Baltic countries.

Sven Bårström

*M.Sc. Engineering
More than 30 years of adequate experience*

Railway Management, Organization and Technical Development for Railway Infrastructure Systems. National as well as international. Particular experience from Managing Swedish Rail Administration.

Gunnar Hallert

*M.Sc. Engineering
More than 30 years of adequate experience*

Railway Management, Operation and Maintenance Planning for Railway Infrastructure Systems. National as well as international. Particular experience from Managing Railway Operation Companies. Has wide experience of working in Balkan, Africa Middle East and Trinidad.

Jan Hertting

*M.Sc. Engineering
More than 30 years of adequate experience*

Transport & Railway Management. Organization and Operation of Road- and Railway Administration Units. Particular experience from Legislations issues for transport Sector in Serbia.

Dick Jonsson

*M.Sc. Engineering
More than 30 years of adequate experience*

Team Leader and Project Manager for internationally funded projects, especially World Bank and European Development Bank. Main engagements; road safety, road maintenance management, feasibility studies roads, detail design, supervision, institutional development and capacity building. Special experiences in road safety management and setting up Accident Information System. Particular experience in maintenance management system for low traffic volume roads in Asia and the Baltic countries.

Dag Nordenfors

*B.Sc. Electronic Engineering
More than 30 years of adequate experience*

Signalling specialist with more than thirty years as leading Signal Engineer and Manager at Swedish Rail Administration. Mr. Nordenfors, in addition to his work as Leading Engineer and teacher, is the author of several books and publications for students of the subject "Signal systems".

Christer Söderberg

*MBA, University of Uppsala
20 years of adequate experience*

Long experience from complex international projects. Has during the last 20 years been working in leading positions in international assignments. Examples are: MD SwedData AB, MD and owner of Graphium Consult AB, MD ÅF International, MD OPTO International AB, Chairman Swedish Consultants. During his time as MD for Graphium Consult, Söderberg had responsibility for and was leading many large scale international projects on behalf of printing companies and school book publishers. Several of these projects were done on behalf of UNICEF in Kurdistan.

Dag Vegger

*M.Sc. Engineering
More than 20 years of adequate experience*

Team Leader and Project Manager for internationally funded projects, especially World Bank and Asian Development Bank. Feasibility studies of roads, railways and waterways, multi modal studies, detail design, supervision and institutional development. Special experience in road design software development and setting up Road Management System. Particular experience from feasibility and road design in mountainous region (Himalaya).
